I have Windows 7 Ultimate 64 bit home edition. I just installed a trial version of Able2Extract 9.0.11 patch. I tried To start a trial the Able2Extract installer ran and the first dialog I encountered was this one: I did not see anything wrong with this. I was able to go to the next page. I then began to install Able2Extract. I Read the License Agreement and agreed. After installation was completed the installer then ran and ran until it passed Through this point. I got this screen: It did not tell me that I had to restart my computer, which surprised me, but I saw no error. I went to start the Able2Extract. When it started I could not find the icon to stop the software. I right-clicked the icon but I saw this: I figured that I had to right-click to stop Able2Extract. When I did I did not see the STOP RIGHT NOW button. In fact, I Wasn't even able to select an option from the right-click menu. So, I went into the Quick Launch bar and selected the Able2Extract command. When I did Able2Extract did a restart of the computer. I didn't see any messages about needing To do this. When I did start Able2Extract I could use the application to convert to MSXML. I could also edit MS Word documents, change data In MS Excel spreadsheets and I could save these formatted files as PDFs. I ran the trial version of Able2Extract for 30 days and from those 30 days Able2Extract now costs $4.95. I wanted to See if it can perform any tasks I wanted to perform. I downloaded a demo of MS Power point and opened the file. The Screen below shows that Able2Extract did not let me perform any of my tasks:
