He is a great student of the game and in a perfect position to see the big picture. But he has also been honest with himself and wants to work on particular aspects that he knows need to improve." "I had no idea I was about to become a star," says Zoltán, who is no stranger to the limelight having starred in a number of commercials. "I feel like I've matured as a footballer with the help of Martín. The more we have worked together, the more I have learned. If I play for another 10 years, I will still keep improving."
