Each episode of the show centers around a struggling American restaurant, which the show's owner comes in to either revamp or close. At the end of each episode, the owner gives the restaurant a one-time makeover to get it back on its feet and into the hands of a new chef (who sometimes fails). After New York, the rest of the United States has gotten a look at the show, and the plans are set in motion to bring the show to their area of the country. A former sports radio show host and professional gambler named Gordon Ramsay (pronounced "rah-CRAY-uhs") is contacted by two men about bringing his show to their city. The city council insists that the show is completely divorced from reality. The show's producers and Ramsay agree to a contract with the city and move into a hotel. They will not receive payment for the show unless it earns $1 million in revenues. The first episode premieres in Atlantic City, the "comeback capital of the world." What is Popper Stopper Pro? Say goodbye to pop-ups with Popper Stopper Pro. We all have that one website or two that keeps breaking our productivity with its persistent, annoying and intrusive pop-ups. Yes, even though many of these pop-ups are ostensibly a good marketing strategy to coax you into buying the company's product, we would rather they didn't exist at all. Popper Stopper Pro is a simple Chrome extension, designed to eliminate pop-ups from your browsing experience. This can be achieved two different ways: 1. You can choose to install Popper Stopper Pro in 'manual' mode (i.e. you are to click "Add to Chrome" button in the extension page) to avoid any chance of it overriding any existing extension in your browser, which is to be expected. 2. You can also choose 'auto' mode, where you can be notified about any potentially annoying pop-ups that it detects. If that doesn't work, then you can always use the site-blocking feature to block the pop-ups you don't want. Needless to say, Popper Stopper Pro will not only improve your browsing experience, but also save you from unwittingly clicking on any of the sponsored content (pop-up if you will), unless you are actually looking for something specific. Does Popper Stopper Pro work? Yes, it definitely does! You will only ever get notified about the pop-ups that are about to be blocked. Once that is done, you can either click 'Allow Always' or click 'Open' to proceed to the website anyway. If you aren't having any issues with this extension, then it's all good. If you find that it's too rigid and annoying, then you can always deactivate the feature. It's entirely up to you. How does Popper Stopper work? Popper Stopper Pro utilizes what are known as 'Domains' in order to determine whether the pop-up is about to be blocked or not. It makes use of an algorithm to detect and block any unwanted pop-ups from appearing. As stated earlier, there are two ways to deal with this problem. Either by selecting the manual installation option or by relying on the 'auto' feature. If Popper Stopper Pro detects a new popup, it will notify you about it. This is where the magic happens. You can choose to allow it to
