Mafia Wars: Mobile takes the casual action to the streets of New York City. By IGN Staff Don't be fooled, Mafia Wars: Mobile is no simple update to the current gameplay, graphics, and systems. It brings a new sense of urgency to the game that combines the intense thrill of dodging bullets, and the calculated strategy of wielding great weaponry. The Mafia Wars: Mobile update brings a new city to plunder, new blood to your family, and a new persona to show off at your favorite sports bar. The game is set in New York, the city that never sleeps. New York is filled with crime, and residents must contend with choices of shadowy underworld characters known as Vines, who are constantly searching for a mobster to take out. In Mafia Wars: Mobile, players will choose from five different gangs of mobsters that include a demolitionist, an arsonist, a silencer, a sniper and a hit man. You'll start off with five action cards in your hand. And you'll earn Action Cards through completing missions. Your Action Card choices will range from moving through a mobster to searching the city for another Vine. Once your Action Card is full, all of the Vines will come after you. Your gang, Friends of Friends, will consist of up to 30 mobsters. You'll need to upgrade each of your gang members in order to survive. Vines will move through your gang, harming your members as the game progresses. Upgrading Gang Members will be done through completion of missions, or by purchasing them through free action points. Mafia Wars: Mobile will offer five different levels of difficulty, with 100, 50, 25, 15 and 10 agents available for purchase. Prices range from $0.99 to $5.99. We also see new features, such as upgrades to Friends, the gang truck, the Action Card screen and a new "player pic screen" that will replace the "Actions" screen. Mafia Wars: Mobile will also e79caf774b
