LOUISVILLE, KY Attorney General Daniel Cameron today announced that Virginia Riley has plead guilty to one felony count of Attempted Burglary, a felony which is a lesser included offense of breaking and entering. The charges stem from events that occurred in February 2020 in Louisville, KY. Riley was arrested on March 13, 2020, and released on bond later that same day, pending the resolution of the criminal case. Riley has been and will remain in custody until sentencing on Jan. 10, 2023, after which she will be sentenced to 24 months of probation. The Kentucky State Police (KSP) recovered items such as jewelry, credit cards and a laptop which were among the items stolen from the homeowner. The homeowner is cooperating with authorities in the case. BEVERLY HILLS, FL Attorney General Ashley Moody today announced that Todd Mclaurin has been arrested and charged for providing a fraudulent check-signing service. According to court documents, Mclaurin had been receiving payments by check, and signing over the endorsement on the checks to an unnamed client. Mclaurin allegedly deposited the checks and then cashed them out without the client's knowledge. After the client discovered the check had been cashed, Mclaurin provided a list of checks that he had cashed, which contained over $9,000 in fraudulent activity. EAST ST. LOUIS, IL Attorney General Lisa Madigan today announced that Peter Harris, a licensed attorney, has been arrested and charged with eight counts of possession of child pornography. Harris, 59, of Westchester, Illinois, is alleged to have conducted this activity from 2016 to June 2019, and to have possessed the images via an online storage system. Harris is no longer practicing law or volunteering at law-related charities. He has been barred from the practice of law and will be placed on supervised release for a period of two years.
